Utah, Wyoming, and the West: History and Literature

This catalog contains books on cassette and in braille. It was revised last Fall, and includes history, description and travel, memoirs, biographies, and poetry about Utah, Wyoming, and the West. It also contains historical and contemporary fiction set in the region.

It contains books produced by both the Library of Congress and the Utah State Library. To request a large print or braille copy of this catalog, please check the Reader Response Sheet (page 5 of this newsletter). You may also telephone the library or email the library (blind@utah.gov) to request this item.

Volunteer Corner

This year the Utah State Library Volunteer Recognition and Awards Dinner will be held in the newly renovated Utah State Capitol.

The guest speaker will be David Harris Hart. Governor Leavitt recommended the appointment of Mr. Hart in 1999 as the executive director of the Capitol Preservation Board. Mr. Hart oversees day-to-day activities at the Capitol, its facilities and grounds, and the preservation, maintenance, and restoration of the State Capitol building. His work focuses on the development, management, and design of a long range and a strategic master plan for the Capitol grounds as well as the $200 million dollar restoration and base isolation project at the Utah State Capitol.

After dinner, volunteers can enjoy a tour of the newly restored Capitol. Volunteers, please check your mailbox for your invitation.

If you have any questions, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator, James Shulfer, at 715-6791.

Calendar

Want this newsletter via email?

The library is considering providing this newsletter, See Note, via email. The library is not quite ready to do this as yet, but would like to know how many patrons would like to receive an email as well as a print copy.

If you would like to receive the See Note by email, please check the Reader Response Sheet (page 5 of this newsletter). You may also telephone the library or email the library (blind@utah.gov) to request this item.

If there is enough interest, we will request email addresses in a future issue of the See Note.

Consumer Advisory Committee

The Consumer Advisory Committee of the Utah State Library for the Blind and Disabled meets quarterly at the State Library in Salt Lake. There are 3 positions currently open. Appointment to this committee involves a 4 year commitment, which begins in September, 2008.

If you are a patron of the Library for the Blind and Disabled and would like to serve on this committee, please send a letter of interest and a brief resume by May 31, 2008 to

Bessie Oakes
Program Manager

Medicare Publications in Braille and Large Print

Many of the major Medicare publications are made available in braille and large print. These can be ordered through the Medicare website or toll-free phone number.

Log on to www.medicare.gov and use the search term "publications." If you want to order a publication, you can often choose the publication format: print, braille, or large print.

The toll-free number is 1-800-MEDICARE. One of the main menu choices is "publications."

New Radio Reading Service Schedule

The library's Radio Reading Service has recently made some programming changes. A revised schedule is now available.

To request a large print or braille copy of this schedule, please check the Reader Response Sheet (page 5 of this newsletter). You may also telephone the library or email the library (blind@utah.gov) to request this item.

The schedule is also available on the website of the Utah State Library for the Blind and Disabled –
http://blindlibrary.utah.gov/radio_reading/BroadcastSchedule.html

Lady Detective Novels

Listed beginning on pages 7-11 are adult fiction books in the Lady Detective genre. Following the author's name is the character's name in a series of books, the character's occupation, and the setting for the series. Only one title is listed for each series.

A more extensive list, including more authors and more titles in the various series, may be requested by contacting the library. Books may be ordered by listing book numbers desired on the Reader Response Sheet, by email (blind@utah.gov), online at blindlibrary.utah.gov, or by telephoning the library.
